THE WORLD'S RECORD!

For Naval Gunnery Held by a Centre County Boy.

EDWIN J. HILL, OF THE INDIANA

Sends Eight Shots at 1,600 Yards Straight to the Bull's Eye—Son of Mrs. Margaret Hill, of West Beaver Street, Bellefonte.

NOW HOME ON A FURLOUGH

In a recent issue of this paper we made brief mention of the wonderful record made by Edwin J. Hill, a gunner on the Indiana. In Sunday's North American a more complete account appears of the young man's achievement which we give below:

Eight shots at sixteen hundred yards straight to the bull's-eye.

That is the world's record in naval gunnery, made with the big thirteen-inch guns of the Indiana on her recent cruise.

A Pennsylvania boy, Edwin J. Hill, divides the honors for this achievement with R. W. Reidel, of Chicago. What makes their feat the more remarkable is the fact that neither of them had ever trained a gun of the thirteen-inch calibre before the day on which they made the great record.

The fact that the holes in the target were made one after another while the big ship heaved on the ocean swell as she sped along at ten knots an hour, shows that this was not the result of any "fluke."

Both Hill and Reidel have clean records, and as the President, when he was Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was insistent upon the value of good shooting, it is considered that these two sharpshooters are certain of promotion as fast as there is an opportunity.

Their red letter day was April 2, when the Indiana was out for target practice off Pensacola, Fla. Hill and Reidel had shown proficiency with the smaller guns, and the attention of Captain Emory had been drawn to their excellent work. He said they should have a chance with the biggest piece on board. They were directed to report to Lieutenant L. A. Bostwick, one of the most accurate marksmen in the navy, in the starboard after-turret.

For the first four shots Reidel trained the big thirteen-inch gun for location and Hill for elevation. The next four shots Hill trained the piece for location and Reidel for elevation.

The glasses showed that they had made an unprecedented score, and when the Indiana steamed up to the canvas target and the eight big holes were plainly seen by every one on board cheer after cheer from officers and men went up for the two champion shots of the navy.

There is a proud old mother in Bellefonte who smiles at the frequent mention of "her boy" Edwin's name.

"I always knew he was a clever lad," she says. "I'm glad he's had this good chance to show that he can do as well as the best of them. We're hoping to have him home with us again before long."

Mrs. Margaret Hill has one other son, William, who also takes a natural pride in his brother's distinction. Speaking to a correspondent the other day, he said:

"Eddie has only been on the Indiana a short time, and this was his first trial at firing the big guns."

"But Eddie always was a lucky as well as a 'go-ahead' and a pushing fellow from boyhood. We are never much surprised at anything he may do. He was as pleased at what he had done as could be, for as soon as the ship reached New York and the story was out Eddie wrote us and told all about the shooting."

"Two of the shots were fired in just two minutes and twenty seconds, which was also record time."

"Eddie" Hill, as he is familiarly known in his old Pennsylvania home, is but 23 years of age. He went on the Saratoga in 1896, when 16 years of age, and served two years. In 1898 he went into the service between San Francisco and Samoa, where he served until 1900. Later he was placed on the gunboat Amphitrite, where he remained until less than a year ago. He was then transferred to the Indiana.

Though young Hill had had a good deal of practice handling the smaller guns, in which he was regarded as quite proficient, the target work on April 2 was his first try with any large gun.

"Jackie" Hill is expected home sometime in May or June on a furlough, and when he comes he will undoubtedly be honored by his townsmen for his part in the record target practice.

The Literary Club of State College Meets in Bellefonte.

On Monday night the State College "Barge" drove down to Bellefonte, bringing the full membership of the Literary Club for its May meeting at St. John's Rectory with the Rev. G. I. Browne, the one out-of-town member. Prof. W. H. Wharton, of the Academy, was also present. They arrived at 7:45 p. m. and held a regular business and literary meeting.

The principal paper of the evening was read by Mr. John H. Frizzell, B. A., entitled "The Many-sided Arnold," being a very entertaining criticism of the poetry and prose of Matthew Arnold.

The president of the club for this year, Prof. A. H. Espenshade, was down for the second feature of the usual programme, "A Discussion." He had chosen for his subject "A Brief History of the Literary Club," and he very much surprised and pleased the members by presenting each of them a copy of it in a printed form. It contained:

1. An account of the beginnings of the Club, with the names of the original members.
2. A full list of the members with date of election.
3. A catalogue of the papers read before the Club.
4. Special mention of those which afterwards appeared in print in various ways.
5. A table of the Colleges and degrees represented.
6. A list of the present membership.

Refreshments were afterwards served to fortify the Club for their late ride home.

The following are members of the Literary Club in the order of their precedence of the list of the faculty:

- J. Thornton Osmond, M. S., M. A., Professor of Physics.
- The Rev. Benjamin Gill, M. A., Professor of Greek and Latin.
- Joseph M. Willard, B. A., Professor of Mathematics.
- Fred Lewis Pattee, M. A., Professor of English Literature.
- Erwin W. Runkle, M. A., Ph. D., Professor of Psychology.
- Marshall E. Wadsworth, A. M., Ph. D., Professor of Mining and Geology.
- George C. Butz, M. S., Assistant Professor of Horticulture.
- Nathaniel W. Shed, B. S., Assistant Professor of Mining.
- Irving L. Foster, M. A., Professor of Romance Languages.
- A. Howry Espenshade, M. A., Assistant Professor of English.
- Sylvester D. Powell, M. A., Instructor in History.
- John H. Frizzell, B. A., Instructor in English.
- Rev. George Israel Browne, of Bellefonte.

The Colleges represented as indicated by Prof. Espenshade's printed history were Dartmouth, Wesleyan, Brown, Amherst, Trinity, Harvard, Cornell, Yale, State College, Columbia, Bowdoin, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Mount Union, Western.

Some of the papers which have been published are:

"The Early English Poets," by Fred Lewis Pattee afterwards appearing in her book, "The Foundation of English Literature" 1899.

"Confession and Confessional" by Edwin W. Runkle, published in the "American Journal of Psychology" for July 1899.

"The Story of Art in American Colleges" published in "Education" Jan'y 1903.

At the previous meeting in April Professor Pattee had read a chapter of a novel soon to be published, the scene of which is laid in Centre County.

Taken to the Hospital.

On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Arthur Black, who has been lying critically ill at her parents home in Coleville from a complication of diseases was taken to the Bellefonte hospital where later in the day an operation was performed by a specialist, Dr. Vischer, of Philadelphia, assisted by Dr. M. J. Locke of this place. Dr. Vischer is connected with St. Luke's and with Hahnemann Hospital's at Philadelphia.

—Miss Lulu Pacini was taken very ill Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Murray Andrews. She was taken to her home on South Allegheny street and today is reported as somewhat better.

A SAD BEREAVEMENT.

Mrs. Mary Fisher Blanchard Expired Friday at Watkins, N. Y.

CAME OF ILLUSTRIOUS ANCESTRY

Grand-Daughter of Rev. James Linn, D. D., and Daughter of Hon. John Irvin, in His Time a Prominent Iron Manufacturer—She Was the Widow of Edmund Blanchard Esq.

DEATH WAS DUE TO HEART DISEASE

The sad, though not unexpected intelligence was received in Bellefonte Friday that Mrs. Mary F. Blanchard had died Friday afternoon at Glen Springs Sanitarium, Watkins, N. Y.

For the past year, the deceased has been in failing health, and her friends becoming apprehensive advised her to visit this resort in the hope that the treatment afforded would be of benefit. She continued however, to gradually grow worse. On Monday the family received word that her condition was alarming, and her daughter Anna left for Watkins immediately, arriving there Tuesday morning. Her son Frederick who resides in Chicago, reached his mother's bedside on Thursday night, and was with her during her last hours.

Her age was sixty-two years, and the direct cause of her death, affection of the heart.

Mary Fisher Blanchard belonged to one of the oldest and most distinguished families of Bellefonte, and was a descendant of a long line of notable ancestry.

In 1869 she was married to Edmund Blanchard Esq., an eminent member of the Centre County bar, and senior member of the law firm of E. & E. M. Blanchard. He was a man of great public spirit and mainly through his efforts the large Nittany Furnace was erected. Her husband died in 1886.

She was the daughter of the late Hon. John Irvin Jr., who during his active business life was one of the most prominent and extensive Iron Manufacturers in Central Pennsylvania, and at one time occupied the position of Associate Judge on the bench of this county. For many years he was trustee of the "Thomas" estate, and at the time of his death, one of the most respected citizens of Bellefonte.

Mrs. Blanchard's mother was Anna Harris Linn, daughter of that venerated man of God, Rev. James Linn, D. D., who for fifty years, faithfully and acceptably served as pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, and whose memory is revered, and his name honored by that denomination, throughout the length and breadth of the state. Her grand-mother (the wife of Rev. James Linn, D. D.) was Jane Harris Linn, daughter of James Harris one of the original founders of Bellefonte. Her relationship in this community was extended, among them being two aunts Mrs. Jane E. Welsh and Mrs. Margaret H. Wilson daughters of Dr. Linn.

By the death of Mrs. Blanchard, Bellefonte is called upon to mourn the loss of one of its most estimable women. She was respected and beloved by all, and was greatly interested and took an active part in every good work for the common good, kind hearted and sympathetic she was a friend whom one could approach and unburden their hearts trouble, with the assurance of being listened to with patience and tenderness, and her bright and happy disposition, always having the effect of dispelling the deepest gloom.

The deceased was a life long and consistent member of the Presbyterian church, and as long as her health permitted an earnest worker in the Sabbath school. For many years she was a member of the church choir, and the memory of her sweet voice will be cherished by those who have listened to her singing God's praise. Here was a beautiful Christian life, she lived in Christ and for Christ, and when the summons came, it found her prepared to enter into the inheritance awaiting those who truly serve their God.

She was a loving and devoted mother, the interests of her children being always her first consideration, and she had the consciousness of knowing that the tender care and affection, she bestowed upon them was appreciated and acknowledged, and today, there is sincere mourning in that afflicted home, at the death of the noble mother, and gracious friend.

There are surviving the deceased, one sister Mrs. Jos. Bright of Overbrook; her son Frederick, and three daughters Rebecca, Anna and Christine.

The remains arrived in Bellefonte Saturday morning and the funeral took place from her late residence on Linn street, on Monday morning at 11 o'clock. Interment in Union cemetery.

Rev. William Laurie D. D. conducted the religious service at the house. The following acted as pall-bearers: Messrs Thos. Beaver, Wallace Gephart, Edward L. Hoy, John Blanchard, J. Harris Hoy and Edmund Blanchard.

Died at Altoona.

At 9 o'clock Thursday morning Mrs. George W. Ellenberger, of Guyer, Centre county, died at the Altoona hospital, to which institution she was admitted about a week ago to be treated for tuberculosis and cancer. Medical skill was unavailing, however, as the diseases were too far advanced to be checked or stayed.

The deceased was survived by her husband and two sons. Also by these brothers and sisters: J. C. S. Rider, of Tyrone; Frank Rider, of Altoona; C. W. Rider, of Centre Oak; Mrs. J. S. Hull, of Tyrone; Mrs. W. S. Love, of Carlisle, and Mrs. Charles Henderson, of Spruce Creek. Her aged mother is also living and resides at Guyer.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. During her last rational moments she frequently quoted from the Scriptures and spoke most hopefully and trustfully of the journey she was about to take. The remains were taken to the late home of the deceased on the 2:55 train Thursday afternoon.

Death of an Old Citizen.

Monday morning at 7 o'clock the venerable George Murdock died at his home at Penna. Furnace after a brief illness of disease incident to old age. Deceased was the oldest iron worker in this section and was an employee at Penna. Furnace all his life except a few years spent at Huntingdon Furnace. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and his kind disposition endeared him to every man, woman and child with whom he came in contact. He is survived by his wife, seven children and one brother. His children are, George Murdock, of Benore, Howard, of Tyrone; Mrs. John Harpster, of Burnham; Mrs. Maggie Miller, Mrs. Clara Rhoads, Mrs. Tucker Slesher, of Altoona, and Mrs. Martin Gills, of Coalport.

Interment was made in the Graysville cemetery on Wednesday at 2 o'clock p. m. The pall-bearers were six of his grandsons. Rev. R. M. Campbell officiated.

Death of Mrs. Michael Young.

Sarah J., wife of Michael Young, died at her home in Bush Addition Thursday of a complication of diseases after an illness of three weeks duration.

Deceased whose maiden name was Sarah J. Solt, was the daughter of Daniel and Mary Solt and was born near Centre Furnace about 37 years ago.

She was a member of the Methodist church at Allport where the family resided for several years and was a consistent Christian lady.

She is survived by a grief-stricken family consisting of her husband and the following children: Mrs. Minnie Miller, of Holt's Hollow; Annie, Chester, Myrtle, Selma and Ethel at home.

The funeral services were held from the house on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. W. H. Brown of the Evangelical church. Interment in the Advent cemetery, near Milesburg.

Death of a Little Child.

On Sunday morning the angel of death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gieswhite on Willowbank street and carried away the spirit life of their dear little son John Gieswhite Jr. The little child had only been sick a short time and his death is a great shock to his parents. The cause of death was blood poison the result of an operation. He was 19 months and 3 weeks old. The funeral services took place Tuesday morning at 9:30. Rev. Dr. H. C. Holloway of the Lutheran church officiating. The Lutheran choir sang several very pretty hymns. The casket bearers were Messrs. George Love, John Royer, Daniel Roosenhoover, and John Brown. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

Death of James Malone.

James Malone, who was a boss for the Collins men when they were railroad builders and came to this county with them a number of years ago, died at his home at Scotia on Wednesday and was brought here for burial in St. John's Catholic cemetery Thursday morning. He was a very respectable old gentleman in whom his employers always had the greatest confidence.

A MOST DISASTROUS FIRE!

University Inn at State College Destroyed.

IT WAS A FAMOUS HOSTELRY

The Property of Philip D. Foster, the County Treasurer—Damage Estimated at $15,000 to $20,000.

MONEY AND JEWELRY LOST

One of the most disastrous fires that has taken place at State College, in many a day, occurred there Saturday morning when the big University Inn, the property of County Treasurer Philip D. Foster, of this place, and famous all over the state, caught fire and burned to the ground. The fire broke out about 11 o'clock in a room on the third floor. Just how it originated is unknown, but the building being entirely of frame it spread with great rapidity and in three-quarters of an hour was entirely destroyed and now, only a pile of smoldering embers marks the spot where many social events have transpired and the elite from all parts of the country have been entertained.

State College has a volunteer fire department and they were soon on the scene doing all in their power to subdue the flames, but so rapid was the work of the fire that their efforts were almost useless.

The present landlord of the hotel is Frank Kennedy and his loss is quite heavy. All the furniture on the first floor was removed but almost everything in the upper stories was lost. There were about fifty students boarding at the Inn and they were unable to save anything. There were five pianos in the building at the time, three were destroyed and two saved. One of those that was burned belonged to M. C. Gephart, of this place, and was valued at $300.

Mr. Kennedy just took charge of the Inn last January when Mr. Foster assumed the duties of County Treasurer, and his loss is quite heavy. He was making great preparations for entertaining the public during the approaching Commencement. All that he owned in the building was his household furniture on which there was $500 insurance.

The fire created great excitement at the College and it is almost impossible to get the correct particulars. The College barn was on fire several times but each time the fire was extinguished without serious damage. The woods and the railroad track back of the College also caught fire and a wide scope of territory was burned over. This afternoon the fire is reported to have burned itself out and all danger is over. The entire property, with furniture, etc., belonged to Philip D. Foster, of this place, and his loss is estimated at from twelve to fifteen thousand dollars. The building and furniture were insured in the agency of George L. Potter, of this place, for $10,700.

The University Inn was built about eleven years ago by the University Inn Company, a company composed of Bellefonte and State College capitalists and cost originally $26,500. The venture proved to be a failure financially. I was one of the most imposing buildings at State College and was the first one to be noticed by visitors coming into the town on the train. It was three stories high, with wide verandas on all sides, built entirely of frame and equipped with all modern conveniences. About six years ago it was purchased by Mr. Foster for $11,500, he adding many improvements and making quite a success of the business. Its destruction will be a severe loss to State College.

Besides the students who were boarding at the University Inn, State College, there were seven Professors and their families and about twenty-five workmen employed on the new chapel being erected by Charles M. Schwab. All the students, professors and workmen lost all their belongings, including furniture, money and valuable jewelry. One of the men employed on the chapel lost $400. Other losses ranging in sums of from $5.00 to $275 are reported.

Will Brouse, son of R. S. Brouse, of this place, lost several suits of clothing, and a handsome gold watch which had belonged to his grandfather, the late William Harper. Brouse's loss will amount to $250.

Many of the men employed on the Schwab building, who lost their all in this fire, have become so disheartened that they are leaving for their homes.

The fire coming at this time will seriously mar the plans for the coming State College Commencement.

SHORT AND PITHY.

Wisconsin is now manufacturing absinthe and exporting it to France.

An Indianapolis court has decided that cooking of onions in a flat building is a nuisance.

Missouri baking-powder is trying to cloud the glory achieved by the Missouri mules—in the Boer war.

Ireland has concluded to accept the land bill for better or worse and will try and "live happily ever after."

Perhaps some light on the trust question could be obtained from Mexico whose constitution forbids monopolies.

A few years ago there were nearly one hundred exclusive millionaire cattle kings in the southwest. Today there are but thirty.

Of the 41,000,000 people in England more than half live on incomes of less than $12 a week and the earnings of 7,000,000 of these people do not exceed $6 per week.

J. Pierpont Morgan is a striking incentive to men of advancing years. He is sixty-six years old and most of his success has been achieved since his sixtieth birthday.

The President recently told a friend that he expected to return to Washington next month "completely rested." Most men would require two months to recuperate from such a trip.

Chicago has certainly demonstrated its right to be known as a cosmopolitan city. It has a native mayor, a Polish City Attorney, a Germany City Treasurer and an Irish City Clerk.

An exchange says that Great Britain buys her butter and cheese from Denmark but forgets to say that the British consumption of American cheese and butter is constantly increasing.

A remarkable change in the nativity of Americans is shown by the recent census. Seventy-nine per cent of the American people are natives of the state or territory in which they live.

Since the President has assured the people of this country that Germany's professed friendship for the United States is sincere it is to be hoped that the German press will take the hint.

A modern epigram reads "Every wife is the architect of her husband" but that does not prevent some women from having to undertake the thankless task of making buildings without material.

The officials of the Department of Agriculture assert that there is no good reason for the recent rise in the price of beef. Evidently the officials are unaware of the existence of the beef trust.

There was a general impression among visitors at the Saint Louis exposition dedicatory ceremonies, that a persistent and organized effort was being made to boom Cleveland for the presidency.

It is futile for the press to insist that Archie Roosevelt's "calico" pony was the first "pony" that ever went up in the White House elevator. Probably no ponies ever went up in Mrs. Hayes time but since then!

A Saint Louis newspaper recently published an editorial explaining that when President Roosevelt shut his eyes almost tight and showed all his teeth he was smiling. Some of the people of Saint Louis took this expression for one of anger.

Students of labor problems who come from Europe to study the conditions of American labor are unanimous in their belief that American workmen consume less liquor than their European cousins. To this is doubtless largely due the better social condition of the Americans.

The dedicatory ceremonies of the Saint Louis Exposition were, on the whole, successful, but perhaps in nothing more than in their demonstration to the Exposition authorities that they must secure competent and experienced men to help them make the Exposition itself a success.

Some remarkable changes have recently taken place in the United States. The South is fast acquiring the cottonspinning industry while the abandoned farms of New England are again selling at good prices and are being renovated, refertilized and brought under scientific cultivation.

General Baden-Powell recommends saltwater bathing for the American cavalry as a means of improving the physique of the rank and file. The recommendation is doubtless good but the highest compliment the General could have paid the American military establishment was his coming to this country to study it.

TO PROBE POSTOFFICES

Investigation to Be Extended to Large Offices in Country.

WILL INITIATE NEW METHODS

Mr. Payne Says It May Be Necessary to Employ Men Outside of Government to Assist—Offices Whose Receipts Aggregate $500,000 Affected.

Washington, May 7.—A far-reaching extension of the present investigation of the affairs of the postoffice department, to include the overhauling of most of the large postoffices in the country, is in contemplation. This statement was made by Postmaster General Payne. Mr. Payne said that the increase by $500,000 of the appropriation for the contingent expenses of his own office had been made for the purpose of investigating the affairs of the department along these lines, but he admitted that it was not at that time anticipated that the investigation would prove so sensational. The details of the proposed general investigation, he said, have not yet been formulated, owing to the fact that all efforts are now being concentrated on the investigation now in hand.

Mr. Payne announced that it might be necessary to employ at various places men outside of the government to look into local postoffice conditions. A lawyer, for instance, he said, might be engaged to go over some rolls. A committee may be designated to look into the needs and conditions generally at the postoffices, including such matters as dispatch of supplies to offices, etc. Mr. Payne said, however, that it was a large undertaking, and at present he was not prepared to say just what form this wholesale investigation of postoffices would take. It will cover all first-class postoffices whose annual receipts aggregate $500,000.

Mr. Payne said that the present administrative methods of the postal service were put in operation by former Postmaster General Wanamaker 14 years ago, and since then the business of the department has trebled. He said that it might be that some of the methods were faulty and the practices irregular, and that the investigation would be made in the hope of initiating new and better methods as well as correcting abuses.

Postmaster General Payne has now received replies from ex-Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith, Comptroller of the Treasury Tracewell, Postmaster Merritt, of this city, and Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow, regarding the charges made by ex-Cashier Tulloch, of the Washington postoffice. The abstraction of papers from the safe of the office of the assistant attorney general for the postoffice department by Mrs. James N. Tyner, wife of the then assistant attorney general, is now regarded as practically a closed incident.

Three Negroes Nearly Lynched.
Fremont, O., May 11.—Mob violence, which was threatened in this city as the result of the alleged killing of Otto Mischke by one of three negroes, has subsided. The mob dispersed after surrounding the jail all night and making several attempts to get into the prison. The sheriff's threat to shoot the first man attempting to break the jail doors was effective. The story of the tragedy is to the effect that the negroes, who were in the street, were offended at a question of Mrs. Albert Gommell as to who they were. Mrs. Gommell was on her way home with her husband and children. Mischke, the victim of the bullet, was living at the Gommell house, which was in the vicinity of the affray, and when he came to the door to see what the loud talking was about, a bullet struck him in the stomach, inflicting a fatal wound.

A Suicide at His Wife's Bier.
Chicago, May 11.—When his wife was dying, George N. Benedict declared to her sister: "I can't live without her. I have no hope or desire in life in which she cannot share. If she must go, then I shall go with her." Mrs. Benedict died, and later the husband, lying on a couch within three feet of the bier, pressed a revolver to his head and fired the shot which he hoped would send him to join the wife whose loss he could not bear.

McKinley's Niece in Vaudeville.
New York, May 11.—Mrs. Mabel Baer, a niece of the late President McKinley and a daughter of Abner McKinley, the late president's brother, it is announced, will appear in June on the Hurlig and Seamon vaudeville circuit for 25 weeks, arrangements to that end having been completed. Her first appearance as a professional vocalist will be made in Washington, D. C.

ENGLAND HAS MONROE DOCTRINE

Secretary Lansdowne Proclaims Such a Policy in Persian Gulf.

London, May 7.—Foreign Secretary Lansdowne has proclaimed a British Monroe Doctrine in the Persian Gulf, and has practically notified the competing Powers that any attempt on their part to establish a naval base or fortified post in those waters means war with Great Britain.

"I say without hesitation," said the Foreign Secretary, dealing with the subject in the House of Lords, "that we should regard the establishment of a naval base or a fortified port in the Persian Gulf by any other Power as a very grave menace to British interests, and we should certainly resist it with all the means at our disposal."

Lord Lansdowne contended that so far as the navigation of the Persian Gulf was concerned, Great Britain held a position different to that of the other Powers, both because it was owing to British enterprise and expenditure of life and money that the gulf was now open to the commerce of the world, and because the protection of the sea route to India necessitated British predominance in the gulf.

Lord Lansdowne's attitude in this matter generally meets with approval, although the answers thereto of the other Powers interested in the gulf are awaited with some anxiety.

PRESIDENT IN ARIZONA

Inspected the Grand Canyon and Met Members of His Old Regiment.

Grand Canyon, Ariz., May 7.—Arizona welcomed President Roosevelt here, and the welcome it gave him was a warm one. Horses were in waiting at the station as the train pulled in, and after the president had greeted a number of members of his old regiment he mounted and took a 12-mile ride. Then he returned to the hotel, where he made a brief address to the people and presented diplomas to the graduates of the Flagstaff School.

The president shook hands with those whom he had addressed, and then, with Governor Brodie, President Butler, of Columbia College, and Dr. Rixey, he rode out to a miners' camp about 15 miles from here, where he had luncheon. He spent the remainder of the afternoon inspecting the grand canyon, and later received the members of his old regiment in his car. At 6 o'clock his train left for California, the first stopping place being Barstow.

USED GENERAL MILES' NAME

Native Says His Visit to Philippines Was to Aid Anti-Imperialists.

Washington, May 7.—In a recent trial at Manila there was introduced in evidence a letter taken from a Filipino and signed by a native, saying that the recent visit of General Miles to the Philippines was for the purpose of collecting evidence to aid the cause of the anti-Imperialists. The letter, with other evidence, was published in a Manila paper. General Davis, commanding in the Philippines, sent a copy of the letter to the war department, with an endorsement saying he had no doubt that the use of General Miles' name in this connection was unauthorized. The letter with endorsement was referred to General Miles, who returned it with the further endorsement that the view of General Davis was entirely correct and the use of his name was wholly unauthorized.

Water Cure in Kansas Asylum.

Topeka, Kan., May 7.—It has been customary to administer the "water cure" to refractory patients at the Topeka Asylum for the Insane, according to the testimony of Miss Knox, of Topeka, given before the legislative investigation committee. Miss Knox said that the "water cure" frequently was administered while she was an attendant at the asylum. She was employed there during Governor Stanley's first term, and the head attendant of the ward in which she worked was Miss Houston, who left the institution to be married. It was by the orders of Miss Houston, according to Miss Knox, that the "water cure" was administered.

Fatally Wounded by Young Brother.

Minneapolis, L. I., May 7.—Viola Symes, the 7-year-old daughter of David Symes, of this place, was shot and probably fatally wounded by her 9-year-old brother, Edward. The boy had taken his father's revolver to shoot a cat, and after using it, and believing it to be empty, playfully pointed it at his sister and pulled the trigger. The little girl fell unconscious with a bullet in her forehead.

Operations by Dr. Lorenz.

New Orleans, May 7.—Dr. Adolf Lorenz performed two operations in the charity hospital. Both were cases of club foot. The amputation of the hospital was crowded with local physicians and visiting delegates to the American Medical Association.

College of Music.

Parents desiring their children to have thorough instruction in music, and well cared for, can find no better place than THE COLLEGE OF MUSIC, Freeburg, Snyder County, Pa. Pupils from ten years old and from the beginner to the advanced are admitted. Terms begin May 4, June 15 and July 20. For catalogue address.

MARCUM VICTIM OF PLOT

Killing of Kentucky Lawyer Was Result of Well Laid Plans.

WITNESSES AFRAID TO SPEAK

At Least Three Men Know Who Assassin Is, and It Is Feared They Will Be Killed—Feudists Terrorize the Breathitt County.

Lexington, Ky., May 7.—A messenger who left the interior of Breathitt county at dawn Monday to bear a warning to Attorney J. B. Marcum that a plot to kill him had been formed the night before reached Jackson a few minutes after an assassin's bullet had crashed through Marcum's brain and heart, as he stood in the court house doorway. During Sunday night Edward Strong, a friend of Marcum, was informed that a conspiracy had been entered into at a meeting of several desperate men at a blind tiger three miles from Jackson to assassinate Marcum Monday. At daylight he sent a messenger to convey the information to the attorney, who lay dead when he arrived. This statement was made by Mrs. Marcum in an interview last night. If the meeting at the blind tiger Sunday night told of by the widow can be proved, the assassin and the plotters may yet be known.

Any investigation must be strictly within legal bounds, and it may not be possible, even then, to make people feel secure in telling what they know. A newspaper man who arrived from Jackson describes the situation there by saying:

"The town may be compared only to a man sitting on a barrel of powder in a shower of sparks. When the explosion will come no one knows, but I believe it is inevitable. At least three men know who assassinated James Marcum, and though they are silent, it is believed their doom is sealed. Such a situation in Breathitt county means death or exile. There are also others who know who assassinated Jim Cockrell. They will not be overlooked. If these people remain, or there is the possibility of a rigid investigation by the law, I believe they will be put out of the way at an early day. Several families are preparing to follow the example of more than 50 people, who during the last six months have fled from the country. Male members will leave immediately, and when they have found a home the women and children will follow."

It is expected that the contingent with which Marcum was allied, which includes an influential family of postmaster Hurst, Marcum's father-in-law, are uniting against the Cockrell family, with a view of precipitating a fight. Conservative citizens who are acquainted with either family do not express surprise at the report. Governor Beckham has offered $500 reward for the conviction of the assassin of Marcum.

"Have by some surgeon Shylock on thy charge to stop his wounds lest he do bleed to death." People can bleed to death. The loss of blood weakens the body. It must follow that gain of blood gives the body strength. The strengthening effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in large part due to its action on the blood-making glands and the increased supply of pure, rich blood it produces. It is only when the blood is impoverished and impure that disease finds a soil in which to root. The "Discovery" purifies the blood and makes it antagonistic to disease. When the body is emaciated, the lungs are weak, and there is obstinate lingering cough, "Golden Medical Discovery" puts the body on a fighting footing against disease, and so increases the vitality that disease is thrown off, and physical health perfectly and permanently restored. It has cured thousands who were hopeless and helpless, and who had tried all other means of cure without avail.

Twenty-one one-cent stamps to cover expense of mailing will obtain a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, in paper cover. Send thirty-one stamps if cloth binding is preferred. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TWELVE MEN BURNED TO DEATH

Passenger Train Crashes Into Caboose of Work Train On Canada Road.

St. Paul, May 8.—Reports have been received of a serious accident at Dexter, a small station on the Canadian Pacific Railway, 50 miles west of Port Arthur, Ont., in which 12 lives were lost. A large number of laborers were with a work train at Dexter, where they had been loading ties. Their train was on a side track and the men were at breakfast in the caboose, a boarding car at the end of the train. A passenger train crashed into the caboose, where the men were eating, overturning the car. The wreckage caught fire almost immediately from the engine. Of the men in the car 12 were instantly killed or burned to death in the wreckage, where they had been pinned by the overturning of the car. Eight others were seriously injured, and still others less seriously hurt. The wreck is far from means of relief, and details of the accident are incomplete, as the wires have been working badly and no names or further information about the accident has been received.

Probability of War Slight.

Vienna, May 8.—A decidedly optimistic feeling prevails in official circles here regarding the relations between Turkey and Bulgaria, which are declared to have greatly improved within the last 24 hours. The probability of war between the two countries is now considered slight. Official news has just been received here that the Porte has withdrawn its note to Bulgaria. It is frankly admitted that Turkey has very serious grounds for complaint against Bulgaria, but it is believed that the Sultan is too clever to embark upon a war from which, if he were victorious, he would gain nothing, and in which he might lose everything.

Two Backbones and One Leg.

Easton, Md., May 11.—Farmer Geo. M. Wingard, of near Oxford, is having mounted the skeleton and skin of a six-legged lamb which he found in his sheepfold a few days ago. The animal's forequarters were perfectly shaped, but there were two spines from behind the shoulders, and the lamb had two sets of hindquarters. It lived two days.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 25 cents, guaranteed to give satisfaction at Green's Pharmacy."

SAGINAW DANGEROUS OBSTACLE

Wrecked Steamer a Menace to Coastwise Shipping.

Norfolk, Va., May 7.—It has come to light that among the passengers on the steamer Hamilton when she ran into and sank the steamer Saginaw was Miss Schley, daughter of Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, of the navy, who with other women passengers on the Hamilton, assisted by the steamer's stewardess, raised $95 in cash, which was distributed among the most needy of the Saginaw's survivors.

The hydrographic office has charted the Saginaw as a dangerous obstacle in the path of coastwise shipping. It is learned that the cargo of the Saginaw, while not complete, was very valuable. It consisted of naval stores, turpentine, rosin, tobacco, domestic sheeting and yarns from factories hereabouts and other freight. Its exact value is not known, but $100,000 is one estimate. The value of the Saginaw is said by experts probably to have been $150,000.

President Guillaudou, of the Old Dominion Steamship Company, and Superintendent Engineer Higgins made an examination of the damages to the Hamilton. It was decided that the ship could proceed with safety to New York, and she sailed last evening.

A thorough inquiry will be made into the collision by the supervising inspector for the third district, Captain John Oast.

Memorial to Calvin M. Bower.

A Memorial adopted by the Joint Consistory of St. John's and Zion Reformed Churches at its annual meeting, May 4, 1903, Bellefonte, Pa.

Inasmuch as it has pleased our Heavenly Father, through an all-wise yet inscrutable providence, to call away from our midst our brother and co-laborer Elder Calvin M. Bower, and

WHEREAS, the tie of Christian fellowship, which held us together in a common service are thus lengthened while a sense of irreparable loss is upon us; we deem it right and fitting to give expression to our appreciation of his life and faithful service and in a permanent way memorialize our esteem as well as our sincere grief, and

WHEREAS, Brother Bower was a faithful member of St. John's Reformed Church for a period of thirty-two years and during most of these years an office bearer having filled the offices of deacon and elder, and

WHEREAS, for a space of seventeen years he served without interruption as secretary of the Consistory of St. John's Church and of the Joint Consistory of St. John's and Zion Churches, be it therefore

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of Him "who doeth all things well," we believe that his faithful service here has fitted him to enjoy the higher service with Christ in the Paradise of God.

Resolved, That we gratefully make record of his devotion to his Saviour and to the Church in which he loved to worship, and that in his taking away, we hear the loving Father calling us to more earnest service in His Kingdom among men.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family, commending them to the love of God, whose everlasting arms are always ready to sustain.

Resolved, That a copy of this memorial be sent to the widow of our departed brother and be published in the papers of our town and in the Reformed Church Messenger. (signed)

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness it Would Bring to Bellefonte Homes.

Hard to do house work with an aching back.

Hours of misery at leisure or at work. If women only knew the cause.

Backache pains comes from sick kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure it. Bellefonte people endorse this.

Mrs. J. Cowher, of Bishop street, says: "I was very bad with my back and head. I suffered pain in both and was very restless nights besides being so tired all the time that I could hardly drag myself about. I was very lame across my kidneys and bending over, being on my feet much was extremely painful. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills and seeing them so highly recommended for these troubles I procured them from F. Potts Green's drug store. They gave me positive relief, caused me to sleep well, stopped the pains, removed the lameness and invigorated me generally."

SAN MIGUEL DIED GAME

MANY VALUABLE PAPERS FOUND

Scouts, Under Lieutenants Nickerson and Reese, Drove the Bandits From Their Fort and Killed Many of Them. Americans Lost 3 Slain, 10 Wounded.

Washington, May 5.—Unofficial reports received at the war department give additional details of the campaign which resulted in the death of "General" San Miguel and the utter rout of his band of outlaws by the Philippine scouts commanded by Lieutenants Nickerson and Reese. The scouts located San Miguel's band about half way between Calococan and Mariguina, in a strongly fortified corral and black-house built by Spaniards many years ago, and so well concealed by jungle that it had escaped discovery. Lieutenants Nickerson and Reese and their men made a gallant attack on this stronghold under a very heavy fire from the enemy through loopholes in the wall surrounding the blackhouse. The scouts charged over the wall and engaged the enemy in a hand to hand combat, driving them into the fort. In this assault Lieutenant Reese was shot through the thigh just below the groin.

San Miguel, surrounded by a devoted bodyguard of about 30 men, undertook to slip through the line, but being discovered, put up a plucky running fight. Lieutenant Nickerson, with 15 men, attacked San Miguel's party, but withheld their fire until within short range, when they put three bullets through San Miguel's body. San Miguel died gamely, shooting while lying on the ground wounded.

Six of his bodyguards were killed. The remainder escaped in the dense jungle.

The fight lasted about an hour and one-half. The Americans lost three killed and ten wounded, including Lieutenant Reese. The enemy lost 40 dead that were counted, and the jungle concealed other dead and wounded. No prisoners were taken. Many valuable papers were found on the bodies of the dead and were said to contain evidence against several prominent officials in the province.

When San Miguel's body was brought into Calococan the natives at first refused to believe that San Miguel was dead, but he was later identified by a scar on the left breast. The presidente of the town forced four natives into service, and these dug a hole in a nearby field, wherein the body was dumped without a coffin.

It has since developed that about a year ago Governor Taft attempted to induce San Miguel to surrender. Prominent Filipinos acted as intermediaries, but to all overtures San Miguel replied that the government's agents were great rascals and he could not treat with them.

A reward of 2,000 pesos has been paid to the Macabebe scouts who ran down San Miguel.

SIXTY-FIVE SAILORS RESCUED

French Brig Was About to Go Down When Rescuers Arrived.

New York, May 5.—Of the crew of 72 men who sailed from St. Malo, France, on March 28, on the French fishing brig Sans-Souci of St. Servan, 65 have reached here on the Phoenix line steamer St. Andrew from Antwerp. Of the others, six were washed overboard and drowned and one died. When rescued by the St. Andrew the members of the crew had just about despaired of keeping the brig afloat. The Sans-Souci had a terrible trip, being first caught in the ice and crushed and later dismasted by a severe storm.

The St. Andrew caught up with the Sans-Souci on April 23. In response to signals of distress a life boat was sent to the brig, which was found to be a complete wreck as a result of collisions with ice floes and the effects of the storm. Six of the crew were washed overboard during the gale on April 25. Another man died. The crew was removed to the St. Andrew and the Sans-Souci was scuttled. Among the men lost was the father and two brothers of the captain, Louis Guyomard.

The Sans-Souci was engaged in the lobster fishery at Labrador, and was bound thither when lost.

A LETTER FROM JAPAN.

Charles McClure Gives Graphic Description of the Country and People.

Charles McClure in an interesting letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James I. McClure gives an account of the sights he is seeing in far away Japan.

YOKOHAMA, April 16, 1903. We arrived in this place this afternoon after a stormy 9 days voyage from Iloilo. There were 11 of we Iloilo teachers on board and we had a very pleasant time indeed. There were no other passengers. Six days of the trip were very rough which spoiled something of the fun anticipated but the experience was worth something. I was not sick a moment on board.

My baggage came through the custom house O K though I had quite a number of cigars, I was afraid they would charge me duty. We are now quartered in the best hotel in Yokohama but only until tomorrow when we will change because the rates are too high here for our slender purses. My impression of the Japs so far are very much in their favor. They are very intelligent—nearly every one you meet know at least a few words in English. In all the stores English is spoken and even my richsha man knows a little. A Jinkichsha is the means of locomotion here. Just imagine a large two wheeled baby cart furnished with a pair of shafts. In these parts a man (the horse) and on the seat the rider and you have a fair idea of how we get about, most rapidly too for the richsha men are finely muscled and run all the time. One feels ridiculous at first perched up in one of these carriages, and drawn about by a little man but it doesn't take long to become accustomed.

The little children are the cutest things you ever saw. They are dressed in curious flowing gowns that are colored with all the colors of the rainbow. They are always chattering and laughing and playing about in the happiest fashion in the world. I have only seen a little bit of native part of the city. Tomorrow we are going to go all over the foreign quarter and the native quarter and then the next day we shall probably go to Tokyo. There we shall hunt up some people to whom we have letters and get a few pointers.

A chinaman came into our room this afternoon in response to a call of mine for a fellow to press my clothes—he spoke pretty good English and showed us some fine cloth for suits. He will make a suit for 26 yen—$13 that in the States would cost $25. I intend to have a dress suit made either here or in Hong-kong.

All over the city—the commercial part of Japan—one sees the effect of English and American ideas. Anything you want can be had, and passing along the street one sees people from all over the world—Chinamen, Frenchmen, Englishmen, Germans, Indians from Bombay &c. I wish I could speak French and German as well as I can speak Spanish. Well I must close. I will write you soon again. Keep my letters. We are going back to Iloilo in two months. I think I will buy your silk dress in Shanghai, China. There silk is cheap.

A Fishing Party.

A party of young ladies from the B class at the Bellefonte High School gave quite a novel outing on last Saturday. It was called a fishing party. Ten of them started out about nine o'clock, each armed with a fishing rod and carrying lunch baskets, containing all the delicacies of the season. They met at the residence of Dr. M. A. Kirk and proceeded to the head waters of Spring Creek, about three miles from Bellefonte where they put in the day very pleasantly. No doubt they had some great fish stories to tell when night came.

No boys were invited, but three of their boy schoolmates managed to get there ahead of them and it is needless to say their presence proved welcome to the young ladies.

The party was made up as follows: Mildred Ogden, Pearl Kniely, Helen Bair, Helen Robb, Rebecca Kirk, Essie Viendorfer, Sabra Faxop, Pearl Royer, Lizzie Barnhart and Berenice Taylor.

The boys present were Harry Hall, Samuel Rumberger and John Smith.

CZOLGOSZ ARRESTED

NO CHARGE LODGED AGAINST HIM

Mr. Roosevelt Received Enthusiastic Welcome at Redlands, and Crowds Cheered Themselves Hoarse When He Rose to Speak.

Los Angeles, May 8.—Acting under instructions from the secret service bureau at Washington, the police have arrested a man who is suspected of being one of the four brothers of Czolgosz, the assassin of the late President McKinley. Great secrecy has been maintained about the arrest, and practically no information has been given out concerning the man. It is known, however, that he was arrested and is confined in the city jail. No charge has been lodged against him, the police simply detaining the man on suspicion until after the president shall have left Los Angeles. It is said that Czolgosz has been living in this city for several months, being employed in a tamale factory.

His actions, it is said, have not been out of the ordinary, and no complaint is made of the man other than that of his relation to the assassin of President McKinley.

CALIFORNIA'S WELCOME

Mr. Roosevelt Greeted at Redlands By Enthusiastic Crowd.

Redlands, Cal., May 8.—President Roosevelt was formally welcomed to California before a crowd estimated at 10,000 persons. In front of the Hotel Casamala was packed a mass of humanity that stretched for two blocks east and west. The enthusiasm displayed must have reminded the guest that California's hospitality really was what he cared it to be. At the east side of the grounds Company G, California Guard, was stationed, uniformed in blue, with campaign hats, leggings and guns. The New York Society was at the south, and along the west were formed the Y. M. C. A. Cadets in uniform. On the corner opposite the balcony from which the president spoke 1,500 school children were seated on a grand stand. As the president approached each of the children waved a flag, and then their young voices were often raised in cheers. Just below the balcony were ranged the Grand Army veterans, while nearby were "Teddy's Terrors," uniformed. Mayor Fowler introduced Governor Pardee, who in a brief speech welcomed the president to California. Assemblyman C. T. Johnson then delivered an address of welcome in behalf of the state legislature.

The great throng cheered itself hoarse when the president arose to deliver his address. It was several minutes before he could proceed. He said in part:

"I am glad, indeed, to have the chance to visit this wonderful and beautiful state, but I did not have to come to know you or like you, for I know what the sons and daughters of the state have done.

"Of all who are here to greet me, I prize most the presence of these men, who fought in the great war (turning toward the Grand Army veterans). Two years ago you welcomed here your comrade and my chief, the late President McKinley.

"He did his part in war as in peace, and if it had not been for the efforts that you and he put forth we would have had neither an American country nor an American president today. In war it is necessary to have arms and accoutrement, but the fundamental necessity is to have men. You fought for liberty under the law, not license. You fought for that freedom that makes every man free. Next, I greet the future. The sight of these children convinces me of the truth of a statement just made to me by Governor Pardee, when he said that in California there is no danger of race suicide. You have done well in raising oranges, and I believe you have done better in raising children. Children, I have just one word for you, and it will apply to the older people as well. It is this:

"When you play, play hard, and when you work don't play at all. That's common sense for all of you."

Later the presidential party, the governor and other guests again entered the carriages and were driven over the city. The night was spent at Riverside.

Resource & Powerful Craft.

Reliance was taken out for another spin lasting two hours yesterday, and on the whole she again proved a stiff and powerful craft. She was very fast in beating and reaching. Under sail she left her anchorage shortly after 2 o'clock and beat down to the lower bay in a light southeast wind. When she came abeam of Musselbed Light she caught a slant of wind and reached over to Prudence Island, making long and short legs almost down to Gould Island.

At twenty love is a rosy dream, at thirty it is a thrilling reality, at forty it is a calm contentment, at fifty it is a reminiscence.

THE ROCK MINERS' DEMANDS

Contractors Will Pay Increase If They Receive It From Coal Companies.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 8.—The rock miners of this city and valley, who have made a demand upon the contractors for the payment of the 10 per cent. increase and back wages as decreed by the coal commission, were informed by the contractors that the latter would be glad to pay the money if they receive it from the coal companies. There is a question, however, whether the contractors can compel the coal companies to pay the extra wages, as proposals are received for work of this kind, and the contractor binds himself to do the work for a certain amount per year.

On the other hand it is claimed that the rock contractors are no more than contract miners, and are entitled to the provisions of the award. The question may have to go before the conciliation committee for decision.

Shot Down His Wife On the Street.

Swedesboro, N. J., May 8.—Meeting his wife on the main street of this village, Thomas Baughan, a young colored man, pulled out a pistol and shot the woman. Thrusting the muzzle of a 32-caliber revolver into his victim's right eye, Baughan pulled the trigger. Mrs. Baughan was hurried to Cooper Hospital, Camden, where she is in a precarious condition. Several persons witnessed the tragedy, and Baughan was seized and made a prisoner before he had a chance to escape. He was committed to the Woodbury jail to await the result of the injuries to his wife. The cause of the shooting is not known.

$25,000,000 Corporation.

Trenton, N. J., May 7.—The Public Service Corporation of New Jersey, with an authorized capital of $25,000,000, was incorporated here. This is the company organized through the Fidelity Trust Company of Newark to acquire the North Jersey Street Railway Company and other trolley and gas and electric light systems in New Jersey, particularly the northern end of the state. Vienna Has No Reports of Disturbances at Novi-Bazar.

Vienna May 7.—The statement that 9000 Christian inhabitants of Novi-Bazar, European Turkey, have been massacred by Moslems, published by a news agency in the United States, is regarded as an invention. A large force of Austrian troops is stationed on the borders of the Sanjak of Novi-Bazar, and no reports of any disturbances in that region have been received.

Sixty Bulgarians Killed.

Salonica, May 7.—An engagement is reported to have occurred at the village of Vanitza between Turkish troops and a Bulgarian band in which 60 Bulgarians, including their leader, Deltseff, were killed, while the Turks had four men killed and three wounded. Thirty houses in Vanitza were burned.

TO SNUFF VOLCANOES.

Startling Discovery Made by An Australian.

Volcanoes can easily be extinguished, says the New York Herald. A New Zealand man claims (and there are many who agree with him) to have discovered a liquid by means of which volcanoes may be extinguished quickly whether active or threatening.

Many diseases of the human body act in the same manner as volcanoes. Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Kidney Disorders, Female Diseases and many others all begin with a slight rumble of pain and distress, and if not treated in time will burst forth in all their fury, causing all who are so afflicted the most intense suffering and making life a complete burden.

That a liquid has been discovered that will extinguish these volcanic eruptions of disease, whether active or threatening, is not only certain but a material fact.

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY is this liquid discovery. THE WONDERFUL CURATIVE powers of this famous remedy have cut a new path through the field of medicine, sweeping with it a startling record of tremendous success.

Druggists sell it in New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours, a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Rock miners get increase.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 11.—As a result of the recent agitation, the rock miners in the Wyoming region will receive 10 per cent. advance in wages, the same as decreed the coal miners, dating from April 1. Some of the men received their advance on Saturday last and others have been promised it this week. The difficulty is not all settled, however, as the rock men demand 10 per cent. back pay on all money earned since November 1, and there is still a question whether they will receive this. The matter will be placed before the board of conciliation.

He was resisting three officers, and fired at Officer Dixon, wounding him in the thigh. He then attempted to throw Officer Lupton off the train. A fusillade followed, and the negro was killed instantly.

—Election expenses for Centre county will be increased considerably next year. The governor has signed the bills allowing justices of the peace $3 per year for taking care of the ballot boxes left in their custody and increasing the pay of clerks to election boards from $3 to $3.50 a day. The caring for ballot boxes will cost the county $162.30 and the additional half dollar for clerks will add $27.00 to the election expenses.

Just About Half Sick

How many times you hear people say: "I don't know what ails me—I am tired all the time—don't feel like moving—don't care to go anywhere—don't want anyone to bother me—nothing interests me—I feel half dead." It's not a pleasant tale. It shows a system at a low ebb—a system ready and fertile soil for any low type of fever or disease. It shows the need of a strong, all round tonic—a tonic that will reach every part, every organ—Brain, Nerves, Stomach and Muscles. A medicine that will give a new feeling of life, a new energy and spring to the played out system. A time-tried, time-tested medicine—Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Solomon Garrett of 301 Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa., says: "I had been feeling very much run down and poorly for a long time. My head ached a great deal and I felt tired and sore all over. I was also bothered with sleeplessness at night. I saw Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills so highly recommended I got a box at Krumm's Drug Store and they did me a great deal of good. I felt first rate after using them and have no hesitation in recommending them to others."

PLOT TO BLOW UP SHIP

HELD 100 POUNDS OF DYNAMITE

Explosive Was Found Through Warning Letter to Police Commissioner, Saying Mafia Will Destroy All British Ships Sailing From New York.

New York, May 11.—An infernal machine connected with a hundred pounds of dynamite was found in a box on the Cunard pier. According to the expert opinion of the superintendent of the bureau of combustibles, the box was found and put into the river just in the nick of time to prevent it exploding and demolishing the pier and the Umbria, which was alongside and about to sail. The box was left at the pier in an apparent attempt to have it placed aboard with the baggage of the passengers. The Umbria sailed a few minutes after the box was discovered and all on board were in ignorance of the attempt to place an infernal machine aboard the vessel.

The discovery of the box was due to the following letter received at police headquarters, addressed to Commissioner Greene:

"Dear Sir: The Mafia greets you and wishes you well. At the Cunard dock is a box containing 100 pounds of dynamite. Inside also is a machine, properly set, and explodes itself any time within 36 hours.

"The society has declared war against England and has ordered the destruction of every steamer flying the British flag that sails out of New York harbor.

"The undersigned received orders to begin operations by sinking the Oceanic, but so many women and children took passage by that boat that the society's plans were changed at the last minute. The machine in the box, the first made, and a crude affair, is inclosed simply to show how easy it is to sink a steamer and to convince those interested that the society is not making idle threats.

"The society has undertaken to clear New York harbor of British ships, and it will succeed.

"This is the society's first and last warning, and those who propose to patronize British steamers must take their chances in the future.

"The society asks and gives no quarter, so lay on, lay on, Macduff, and damned be he that first cries hold, enough.

"PIETRO DEMARTINI."

Detectives were at once sent to the pier and the search for the box was begun, arrangements being made that the Umbria should not sail until the box was found or it was proven that it was not on the pier or in the vessel. After a search of the passengers' baggage the box was found in the middle of a large pile of baggage near the gangway of the first cabin passengers. Two detectives carefully picked up the box and carried it to the end of the pier. The passengers had no intimation of what was going on and therefore no one was frightened. The box was opened and found to contain clockwork that was in motion. A rope was fastened about the box and it was gingerly lowered into the water.

After the Umbria had sailed the pier was cleared of every one except the men from the bureau of combustibles and the officials of the line and the box was raised and carefully placed on the pier. The box was found to be 45 inches long, 20 inches wide, and 20 inches deep, made of new pine, unpainted, of good workmanship and strongly built, the top being fastened with a heavy staple and padlock. A slight examination of the box at the pier showed that it contained a hundred pounds of dynamite, 50 half-pound sticks, and that the fuse in the box had been ignited at some time

NO THIRD TERM FOR GROVER

Cleveland Not Desirous of a Fourth Nomination.

Athens, Ga., May 11.—In reply to a direct inquiry regarding his supposed third-term aspirations, former President Grover Cleveland has written that he is "not desirous" of again carrying the Democratic banner.

Recently the Athens Banner made a poll of business men of this city as to their preferences for the Democratic nomination, and found the overwhelming answer to be in favor of Cleveland. A copy of the paper containing this poll was sent Mr. Cleveland, with a letter from Editor B. F. Holder, Jr., in which occurred the question: "Are you now considering or would you consider making the race for the presidency next year on the Democratic ticket?" To this letter Mr. Cleveland sent the following reply:

Princeton, N. J., May 6. — B. F. Holder, Jr., Athens, Ga. Dear Sir—I thank you for your letter of the 4th inst. and for the editorial clipping from your paper which accompanied it. I cannot fail to be gratified by the kindly expressions which frequently come to me in these days from all parts of the country, and I desire to thank you for your loyal support in the past and for your exceedingly friendly expressions at this time. In answer to the question with which you conclude your letter, I can say no more than to assure you that at no time since the close of my administration have I been desirous of carrying the Democratic banner for the fourth time in a presidential contest. Yours very truly, GROVER CLEVELAND.

DAY OF REST FOR PRESIDENT

Mr. Roosevelt Passed Quiet Day at Hotel Del Monte, Cal.

Hotel Del Monte, Cal., May 11. — President Roosevelt yesterday spent one of the most restful Sundays he has had since his trip began. In one of the most beautiful spots in California, two miles from the nearest city, unhampered by curious crowds, he had a chance to thoroughly rest and prepare for the coming week, which promises to be one of the busiest of his journey. In the morning the president and a small party rode horseback over the famous 17-mile drive along the sea. Governor Pardee and some others of the party drove over the route in carriages. The weather was perfect and the trip was greatly enjoyed by the president, who was enthusiastic over the scenery. In the afternoon he attended St. John's Chapel, on the hotel grounds. The services were conducted by the Rev. Hobart Chetwood, the chaplain. At the conclusion of the services, the president, Secretary of the Navy Moody, President Butler, of Columbia College, and President Wheeler, of the University of California, spent two hours strolling about the hotel grounds. The president passed the evening quietly at the hotel.

The start for the north was begun at 8 o'clock this morning. It was the intention to have the president review the troops stationed at Fort Monterey yesterday, but he declined to do so on Sunday.

LACERATED BY FEROCIOUS DOGS

Two Men Attacked in Auto Near Milburne, N. J., and Terribly Injured.

New York, May 11.—After a wild race of a mile with two ferocious dogs, both of which won prizes at the recent bench show, Horace Munger, a student and well-known athlete at Columbia University, and Harry Arnold, while speeding in an automobile near Milburne, N. J., were overtaken by the animals and terribly injured.

The flesh on the arms and legs of both of the young men was lacerated, and fear is entertained for the recovery of Munger. Only for the presence of mind and courage of James Dixon, an aged gate tender, both the young men probably would have been fatally injured. While the fierce animals were tearing their victims, Dixon rushed up to them and with a revolver killed one outright and drove the other away.

Peace Between Carpenters' Unions.

New York, May 11.—Announcement is made that a settlement of the war between the Amalgamated Association of Carpenters and the Brotherhood, which caused 6,000 carpenters to stop work, is near. The Brotherhood has decided to make application for membership in the United Board of Building Trades, of which the Amalgamated Association is a member, thus allowing the united organizations to bring about peace.

MARCUM SUSPECT ARRESTED

Curtis Jett Charged With Assassinating Kentucky Lawyer.

Lexington, Ky., May 11.—The capture of Curtis Jett, charged with the assassination of J. B. Marcum in Jackson last Monday was accomplished without bloodshed. He is now in the Clark county jail at Winchester. Bearing a warrant, which had been sworn out by Sam Jett, uncle of the accused, Sheriff McCord and a posse of seven men left Winchester. They proceeded on foot to the residence of Mrs. A. Haggin, Jett's mother. Six of the posse were stationed around the dwelling and Sheriff McCord and Deputy Stokely approached the front door and knocked. Jett's mother answered and after some parley admitted that Curtis was within. They were admitted and found Jett awake, but in bed. He shook hands with the sheriff and said that he would give no trouble. Reaching under his pillow he drew out his pistol and turned it over to his mother to keep. He made no show of resistance and was landed in jail at Winchester.

In the jail Jett was communicative on all subjects save the killing of Marcum.

"I'll get out of this all right," was which could be construed as a reference to the charge. He said he wanted to be tried in Breathitt county. He was bitter in denouncing his uncle who had had him arrested, and said that the score would be evened up when he was at liberty. When asked about the statement that five men would testify that he killed Marcum, he sneered and replied: "What's that to you?" To Sheriff McCord he was equally non-communicative as to the Marcum tragedy. Jett is 28 years of age, athletic in build, with deep set keen eyes and has bushy red hair. That he submitted to arrest was an agreeable surprise to the officers, who feared an encounter. He will be arraigned tomorrow, and it is supposed he will be transferred to the Jackson district for trial.

Memorial Service to Talmage.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 11.—Special services in memory of Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage were held at Grace Memorial church, where the distinguished preacher and lecturer preached his last sermon. A beautiful pulpit, erected as a memorial to Dr. Talmage, was unveiled after an appropriate sermon by Rev. Dr. William V. Kelley, editor of the Methodist Review. Eloquent tributes to the memory of the great preacher were given at the evening service by Dr. Kelley, Dr. George Edward Reed, president of Dickinson college, Carlisle; ex-Governor William A. Stone, of Pittsburg, and Colonel L. F. Copeland and Rev. J. Wesley Hill, of Harrisburg.

Mother and Children Fatally Burned.

Frankfort, Ind., May 11.—Mrs. N. A. Long and her 5-year-old daughter are dead and a 3-year-old son is perhaps fatally burned as the result of an oil lamp explosion. Mrs. Long and her two children were sleeping at their home, when a small oil lamp exploded. The oil was thrown over Mrs. Long, but she frantically rushed to the other bed to rescue the children. Instantly she was enveloped in flames, and as she seized the children, their night robes took fire and all three were aflame. The mother then attempted to get out of the house, but was overcome and fell in an adjoining room. Passers-by discovered the fire and burst in the doors. They found all three frightfully burned.

German Societies of Jersey Organize.

Trenton, N. J., May 11.—Fifty delegates from various German societies throughout the state met here to form a state federation of such societies. A temporary organization was effected, with Charles J. Woerner, of this city, as president; Otto Schaller as secretary and Charles Kling as treasurer. Another meeting will be held here on May 26. June 1 was selected as a day to be celebrated by German societies throughout the state.

Drowned While Canoeing.

Troy, N. Y., May 11.—Charles W. Sherrerd, of Scranton, Pa., a student in the senior class of the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, was drowned here in the Hudson while canoeing. There was a party of four students, two in a canoe. A sudden squall upset the craft. Sherrerd tried to swim to the shore, but with his clothes on this was too much and he was drowned. The others were rescued.

Getting to the Point.

John (sheepishly)—I—I s'pose you'll be gittin' married some time?
Betty (with a frightened air)—Oh, I dare say I shall some time.
"I dare say I'll get married too."
"Oh."
"I s'pose you might both get married at the same time."
"Wouldn't it be awful, John, if the parson should make a mistake and marry us to each other?"
"I—I shouldn't mind."
"No; neither should I, to tell you the truth, John."

QUICK ARREST.

J. A. Guldage of Verbena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c. at Green's Pharmacy.

BLOWN UP BY GAS EXPLOSION

Man and Wife Died From Injuries and Their Home Destroyed.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 11.—Hermap M. Blasdel, of North Collins, a former assemblyman, after whom the town of Blasdel, N. Y., is named, and his wife were so badly burned in a fire which started from an explosion and which destroyed their home that they died a few hours later. An adopted son, who was the only other occupant of the house at the time of the explosion, was slightly burned.

Mrs. Blasdel was conscious for some time before her death, and from her it was learned how the explosion occurred. Awakened by a strong smell of gas, she began an investigation. When she reached the hall she struck a match, and instantly there was a terrific explosion. The walls of the house were forced outward, and one side of the building dropped. Fire broke out in half a dozen places, and the whole house was soon in flames. The adopted son, who slept in a remote part of the house, rushed to his foster mother's rescue and succeeded in smothering the flames that enveloped her. Mrs. Blasdel walked out as far as the street, where she fell unconscious. Mr. Blasdel, who had been awakened by the explosion, endeavored to reach the stairway, but found himself cut off by the flames. With his night clothing ablaze, he was forced to jump from an upper window. The shock of the fall and the severe burns resulted in his death. Mrs. Blasdel died at the home of a relative.

LAKE LANAO MOROS PACIFIED

Moral Effect of Fighting at Taraca Will Be Far Reaching.

Manila, May 11.—Captain Peshing and his column have returned to Lamp Vickers, Mindanao, from the expedition through the country east of Lake Lanao. The column experienced no opposition after the fighting at Taraca. The prisoners captured at Taraca took the oath of allegiance to the United States and were released. Among the Moros killed in the Taraca fights were nine dattos and one sultan. The moral effect of this fight will be far-reaching, and it is doubtful if there will be any further hostility in the Lake Lanao country. Captain Peshing estimates the population of Taraca at 30,000 and that of the district at 100,000. He says the population of the Lake Lanao has been underestimated.

Four natives have been found guilty of the murder of three American marines at Olangapo, Subig bay, last September, and have been sentenced to death.

The ladrones situation seems to have materially improved. In Alibey province it is still unsatisfactory, but the other districts which recently have been disturbed are quieter.

FIERCE FOREST FIRES

Big Lumber Town in the Alleghenias Was Threatened With Destruction.

Johnstown, Pa., May 11.—One of the fiercest and most damaging forest fires in the history of the Allegheny mountains has been raging since yesterday above Dunlo, the big coal and lumber town in this county. Last night much apprehension was felt for the safety of several camps of lumbermen working for Kuhns & Goodwin, who were in the great district which had been swept by the flames. Some of them may have perished. They would have to flee from the camps ahead of the fire, and as no tidings have been received from them there is much alarm. The flames came toward Dunlo with terrible fury, and every man, woman and child in Dunlo was out doing everything possible to save the town from destruction. After some hours of fighting the progress of the flames was checked, but it will require vigilance to keep it under control.

Crushed to Death in Trolley Crash.

Cleveland, May 11.—One man was killed, another fatally crushed and a third badly hurt as the result of a street car collision on the road to Euclid Beach. The dead man's name is Galvin, and his home is in this city. The trio were riding on the rear of a crowded car, when an oncoming car crashed into their footboard. Galvin's head was crushed to pulp; Mr. McSweeney was thrown under the car, which ran over his left leg, crushing it, and Mr. Riley is said to be seriously hurt internally.

Pastor Opposed to Organ in Church.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 11.—Because the congregation of the Second United Presbyterian Church, this city, voted to install an organ in the church, the pastor, Rev. J. S. Littell, resigned his charge, to date from the day of the organ installation. Mr. Littell, who is prominent in the denomination, says the innovation amounts to a desecration, and is opposed to the laws of the church.

—The beauty of life in all its forms cannot be separated from its excellence. It is the fleetness of the grayhound, the strength and spirit of the horse, the gentleness of the dove that make them beautiful in our eyes. The human countenance will ultimately betray the soul that dwells within, and the constant presence of love or of hate will transform it into beauty or ugliness long after the roses of youth have lost their bloom. And what is beauty of character? Certainly nothing that can be added as an ornament after character has been established. It is the simple and natural expression of goodness, which can be no more imitated than the rainbow in the sky.

—F. B. Collins, a construction boss, in charge of a gang of men stringing wires for the Western Union Telegraph Company between New York and Chicago, was taken into custody at Somerset by an officer from Pittsburg. Collins is alleged to be a member of an organized gang of construction bosses in the employ of the telegraph company who conspired to rob their employers by padding pay rolls and making up vouchers for fictitious expenditures for right-of-way, for poles and for boarding construction crews, the amount involved said to be over $100,000. The enormous increase in operating expenses caused an investigation to be made and scores of prosecutions are said to be scheduled. Five construction bosses are now in jail in Pittsburg.

—Washington city is today undoing as well as she can a wrong which she did something over three decades ago. It is the funeral time of "Boss" Shepherd, and the municipality proper and the individuals thereof stop to pay a tribute to the man, who, more, perhaps, than any other, is responsible for their city's magnificence. Shepherd was formerly the "boss" of Washington, and he was lavish in the expenditure of money for the beautifying of the city. He was accused of extravagance and worse, and was driven out of the country. A legal investigation vindicated his honesty, and time has more than vindicated his judgment. Washington people hail him as their greatest benefactor. The only trouble thirty years ago was that his ideas were in advance of the times. Now the times have caught up.
